

Dr. Parvinder Banger: Ombudsperson of Capital University, Jharkhand

Dr. Parvinder Banger is the Ombudsperson of Capital University, Jharkhand.

A distinguished academician with vast experience and an illustrious track record, Dr. Banger brings a wealth of knowledge, fairness, and integrity to this important role.

Dr. Banger, a senior educationist, has made significant contributions to the field of higher education and university administration. His appointment is in alignment with the UGC guidelines and reflects the University's commitment to transparency, accountability, and student welfare.

As the Ombudsperson, Dr. Banger plays a crucial role in ensuring fairness, impartiality, and timely redressal of grievances raised by students, faculty, staff, and other stakeholders of the University.

In his capacity, Dr. Banger is available to:

Address complaints and concerns in a just and unbiased manner.

Provide a platform for the resolution of disputes.

Ensure a harmonious academic and administrative environment at the University.

His independent and impartial approach strengthens the University's efforts to build a culture of trust, respect, and academic excellence.

The University has constituted Student Grievance Redressal Committees (SGRCs) at the University level, in accordance with UGC regulations. These committees work under the supervision of the Ombudsperson to address grievances effectively.